IRP report of investigation dated 8/23/56, at Amman, concerning ADEL BISHARA SALAMEH GHATTAS SIRHAN, brother of subject.

The Bureau is advised that identical copies of these investigative reports are being furnished to the Bureau through liaison channels by the Office of Security (SY), Department of State, on 6/6/68.

These documents were made available to SA KENNETH J. HASER on 6/6/68, by SA SIDNEY T. TELFORD of SY who obtained them from the Visa Office, Department of State.

Los Angeles will note that the investigative report concerning subject's mother points out that her case includes her sons SARHAN SIRHAN, subject, and his brother MUNIR SIRHAN. Los Angeles will also note that these investigative reports contain background information concerning members of this family. An apparent discrepancy is noted in that the mother's file states she has four children, all accompanying her whereas the file of BESHARA SIRHAN states that he had six children, none of whom would accompany him. It is believed that this is explained by the difference in dates of these respective reports.

Memorandum

TO : SAC, WFO (173-135)

FROM : ROBERT H. SYLVESTER, Clerk

SUBJECT: KENSALT

DATE: 6/6/68

At 8:54pm, 6/6/68, a telephone call was received from an individual who identified himself as Dr. GERALD JAN SCHIPPER, who resides on a farm in Urbana, Maryland (Frederick County), telephone 301;874-2421. Dr. SCHIPPER said he is a retired dermatologist. He is a native of the Netherlands and has been a naturalized American citizen since 1949. He advised as follows:

During the evening of 6/6/68 he observed on television a picture of the owner of the Organic Health Store, Pasadena, where SIRHAN SIRHAN is alleged to have worked at one time. The owner of the store was identified on television as one JOHN H. WEIDNER, Jr. Dr. SCHIPPER immediately recognized WEIDNER as an individual he knew as JEAN H. WEIDNER, Jr., during World War II. WEIDNER in 1943 operated a clothing store in Annecy, Haute Savoy, France. This clothing store was a clearing house for members of the Dutch underground and other spies who desired to go to Switzerland.

Dr. SCHIPPER was a civilian active in the Dutch underground. Dr. SCHIPPER was jailed in Annecy, France during the War. WEIDNER contacted SCHIPPER then and facilitated SCHIPPER's escape. It is Dr. SCHIPPER's understanding that WEIDNER was decorated by the Queen of Holland for his service to that country.

Dr. SCHIPPER was aware that many operatives in the underground during the War like WEIDNER were communists. Dr. SCHIPPER never had any information that WEIDNER was a communist, however.

Dr. SCHIPPER last saw WEIDNER in 1944 or 1945 when WEIDNER contacted him for assistance. Dr. SCHIPPER was then working for the Dutch government.

Dr. SCHIPPER advised that although he hasn't seen WEIDNER since 1944 or 1945, he immediately recognized his photograph on television, and he is sure of the identification.

Dr. SCHIPPER suggested that complete details re WEIDNER's background could probably be obtained from the files of the Dutch Secret Service.

Dr. SCHIPPER said that he was bringing this matter to the attention of the FBI not because he has any information there is any connection with the assassination of Senator KENNEDY, but because it is an "interesting coincidence."

Dr. SCHIPPER offered his complete cooperation if the FBI desires further details re his association with WEIDNER. He suggested telephonic contact with him for the purposes of interview arrangements.

WFO Indices were negative re the name JEAN H. WEIDNER, JR., or JOHN H. WEIDNER, Jr.

The only reference in WFO Indices re complainant's name concerns one GERALD J. SCHIPPER (Dr.), WFOfile 100-33226-1105, p. 13.

Suspect Is a Jordanian, 24

By William Chapman
Washington Post Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES, June 5—
A 24-year-old native of Jordan, described by interrogators as unremorseful and occasionally flippant, was identified by Los Angeles police today as the suspect seized in the shooting of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.
Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, who lives in Pasadena, refused to discuss the shooting although he talked freely and articulately today about other matters, police said.

According to Police Chief Thomas Reddin, the suspect's identity was traced through the .22 caliber pistol seized after the shooting in the Ambassador Hotel and through fingerprints taken when he applied for a racetrack job.

Police investigators said they had not determined a motive for the shooting and had no evidence the suspect had been hired by anyone. In his pockets, they found a newspaper article critical of Kennedy and four $100 bills.

Reddin said he would not rule out the possibility of a involving other persons. He insisted there is no way now to suggest that one existed.

Reddin said an extensive check had been made of files of subversive organizations, including those representing foreign nationals living in this country. The suspect's name had not turned up in any of those files, the chief said.

Reddin said the case against Sirhan now appears to be so solid that his investigators plan no further interviews. He disclosed, however, that he and the district attorney have agreed that the suspect should be subjected to a psychological test.

[Sirhan was considered by acquaintances to be a "virulent anti-Semite," Jerry Cohen of the Los Angeles Times reported.

[John H. Wiedner, operator of Organic of Pasadena, a health food chain where Sirhan worked as a stock and delivery boy until April, called him "a good worker, an honest man."

"But he had a lot of complexes, mainly related to Israel," said Wiedner. "He claimed when he was young he had seen some people, maybe some relatives, killed by Israelis.

"Sen. Kennedy said the other day he wanted to help Israel. So I was not surprised."

[The same theme was echoed by Dr. Mohammad T. Mehdi, secretary general of the Action Committee on American-Arab Relations, in New York City.

The Associated Press

quoted Mehdi as saying that Sirhan "may have been inflamed" by Sen. Kennedy's backing of the Israeli cause during his TV debate with Sen. Eugene S. McCarthy (D-Minn.).

"[It is this disrespect for the human Arab person which brings about this kind of violence," Mehdi said. He added that Sirhan was active in the Organization of Arab Students while attending Pasadena State College.

[In a formal statement, Mehdi said: "We condemn the fact that Senator Kennedy had kowtowed to the Zionist pressure to the detriment of American interest in the Middle East, as we condemn the act of Mr. Sirhan."]

A swarthy, slender man, Sirhan was arraigned in Los Angeles Municipal Court this morning and then held in the Los Angeles County jail.

According to Lt. Jack Eberhardt, an executive aide to Reddin, interrogators found Sirhan articulate but adamant in his refusal to discuss either the shooting or his political views.

"He's bantering with the investigators at this point," Eberhardt said. "He's flip."

But Eberhardt said that Sirhan talked eagerly about one subject — a sensational local murder case last year in which a Los Angeles County deputy district attorney was convicted of killing his wife and her lover. Sirhan brought up the case several times and was interested in whether the convicted murderer, Jack Kirshke, would win freedom in his appeal.

Sirhan was born March 19, 1944, in the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem and entered the United States through New York City Jan. 12, 1957, according to the Immigration and Naturalization Service. He was then classed as a permanent resident, the Service said, but never became an American citizen.

Both his first and last names mean "wanderer" in Arabic.

Sirhan and two brothers, Munir (Joe) and Adel, live with their mother, Mary Sirhan, an employee of a Pasadena church nursery in Pasadena. There are unconfirmed reports that his father returned several years ago to an as yet undetermined Arab country.

Sirhan graduated in 1963 from John Muir High School in Pasadena before going to Pasadena State. According to the Los Angeles Times, classmates considered him "polite, clean and an A-1 student."

Munir and Adel Sirhan were being questioned by police late in the day and were described as "cooperative."

Besides Munir and Adel, the suspect has two other brothers named Sharif and Saldallah. A fifth brother is believed to exist but has not been identified so far.

A sister has died since entering this country. Sirhan's father has returned to Jerusalem, police said.

The suspect had ham and eggs for breakfast and ate heartily, police said.

Identification of Sirhan — who had refused throughout the night to tell police his name — was announced at a press conference this morning by Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty.

Mayor Yorty, in an off-the-cuff television interview, disclosed during the afternoon that police had found two hand-written notebooks in the suspect's home and said they contained "generally pro-Communist writings."

Yorty said the notebook writings were in favor of Egyptian President Nasser and strongly anti-Israeli and anti-Kennedy.

Yorty also said an article found among Sirhan's belongings in Pasadena declared that Kennedy should not be allowed to live after June 5 (first anniversary of the Arab-Israeli war).

Later, Reddin indicated that he thought Yorty should not have discussed the notebooks because they might prejudice the trial of Sirhan.

A fellow worker at Hollywood Park racetrack said Sirhan recently fell off a horse trying to become a jockey. He worked briefly there as a "hot walker," riding sweaty horses to cool them off.

"When there was trouble between Jordan and Israel, he would become inflamed," the Associated Press quoted John Shear, an assistant trainer as saying. "Since I wasn't interested in politics I would not discuss it. But he was violently pro-Jordan and anti-Israeli."

[Sirhan was arranged before Municipal Court Judge Joan Dempsey Klein at 7:40 a.m., according to the Los Angeles Times. The Times said Police Chief Reddin and District Attorney Evelle J. Younger decided to charge and arraign him as soon as possible to eliminate any possibility that Sirhan could meet the fate that befell Lee Harvey Oswald, slain after the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963.]

The arraignment was secret. Sirhan talked informally for several minutes with County Public Defender Richard Buckley. Judge Klein then asked twice: "Do you have a name?"

At approximately 2:40am, instant, THOMAS PATRICK RILEY, 1005 New Hampshire Avenue, Apt. 4, telephonically contacted the WFO re captioned case.

RILEY stated he wished to be interviewed in connection with the captioned case. Riley advised he felt the "whole mess" seemed fictitious to him and he wished someone would pay respect to what he felt. Caller refused to elaborate in specifics stating he was just as "coy" as the next individual.

Caller stated he had contacted the WFO, 6/6/68, requesting that FBI agents meet him at the doorway of his apartment building inasmuch as he had refused to give his name at the time of that call.

RILEY, who gave his DOB 3/14/21, stated he had attended school with the Kennedys in Massachusetts. Riley also advised he had been employed by the New England Telephone Company.

Caller revealed he has been residing in WDC approximately one year listing his former residence as 17 Parker Staples Road, Dedham, Mass.

Riley, who has no telephone at his residence, stated he was calling from a pay telephone, #296-9837, located at the Washington Circle.

WFO indices reflect a THOMAS PATRICK RILEY, DOB 3/16/26, referenced in WFO file 105-14317-1354.

RE EARL OLANDIA MURPHY

On June 5, 1968, Earl Olandia Murphy, 5932 Third Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., telephone 723-9318, advised that a few days before the assassination of Dr. King he attended a rally for Senator Kennedy at 14th and Park Road, Northwest, Washington, D. C. The man beside him held up a round object approximately two feet long and three inches in diameter with an electric cord extending from it. He asked the man what the object was and he said it was a microphone and began running. He chased him a short distance but lost him in the crowd. He described the man as a white male, 5'6" tall, 100 pounds, stocky build, 35 to 40 years old, wore a dark top coat and a hat. He said he might be able to recognize this man again and furnish information as it may relate to the shooting of Senator Kennedy.

Bufiles indicate that one Earl Olandia Murphy, FBI Number 342 285 E was arrested by the Metropolitan Police Department in 1962 for investigation of indecent exposure.

Washington Field locate Murphy immediately and interview him in detail in order to determine if he has any information of value.

Woman Is Sought In Slaying

BULLETIN

LOS ANGELES — An all-points bulletin was issued by the Los Angeles Police Department today for an unidentified white woman in connection with the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy.

The bulletin said: "Prior to the shooting, suspect (Sirhan Sirhan, who had been charged with the shooting) was observed with a female Caucasian, 23 to 27 years old, 5 feet 6, wearing a white voile dress, three-quarter-length sleeves, with small blue polka dots, dark shoes and a bouffant-type hairdo. This female is not in custody."

By ROBERT WALTERS and JEREMIAH O'LEARY
Star Staff Writers

His family immigrated to the United States in 1957 from the Middle East—that part of the world where the word "assassin" originated centuries ago.

One of his brothers says "all I know is he is a nice kid." His mother says "it can't be true. My son is a good boy. He has caused no trouble."

Los Angeles Police Chief Thomas Reddin describes him as "very cool, very calm, very stable and quite lucid."

But a woman who worked with him in a California health food store says he was "unstable when in some moods."

SUSPECT

mission of religion and politics."

And a co-worker at the Hollywood Park Race Track says he was "violently pro-Jordan and anti-Israeli."

Slowly, a picture has started to emerge of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, the 24-year-old Jordanian held in the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Now under maximum security guard in a hospital ward at Los Angeles County Central Jail, he is charged with six counts of assault with attempt to commit murder.

Those charges were filed early yesterday morning, in the wake of the shooting spree which left Kennedy and five other persons wounded. Los Angeles officials were meeting today to determine what new charges should be filed as a result of the senator's death.

William L. Ritz, a Los Angeles assistant district attorney, said the grand jury which will hear the case against Sirhan tomorrow will be asked by officials to return a murder indictment.

Sirhan, recovering from a broken index finger and States as "permanent residents."

sprained left ankle received in the melee following the shooting, was arraigned on the assault charges shortly after 7 a.m. yesterday.

He was taken under heavy police guard to the Los Angeles Hall of Justice, where he appeared before Municipal Judge Joan Dempsey Klein. Bail was set at $250,000 and a public defender was called into the case by the judge, despite Sirhan's insistence that he did not want legal counsel.

The record shows Sirhan is 5 feet, 4 inches tall, weighs about 120 pounds, has a swarthy complexion and wiry or bushy hair. He was born March 19, 1944, in a small village in Palestine.

At the time, the area was ruled by Britain under the League of Nations mandate. With Britain's blessing, Jordan became a kingdom in 1946. Two years later the British mandate ended and the first Arab-Israeli war was fought.

After the Jordan-Israeli armistice was signed on April 3, 1949, Jordan kept an enclave of Palestinian territory, including Old Jerusalem and the village where Sirhan lived. Israeli forces took the territory last year in the six-day war that began June 5, a year to the day before Kennedy was shot.

Records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service show that Sirhan and six other members of his family arrived in this country shortly after another of the seemingly endless string of Middle East military and political crises.

That was the Suez crisis of 1956. Several months later, on Jan. 12, 1957, Sirhan and six other members of his family arrived in New York City and were admitted to the United Including Sirhan, these were the father, mother, four sons and one daughter. Another son came to the U.S. later. The father has since returned to the Middle East and the daughter is dead. None of the others has been naturalized.

Permanent resident status is currently held by approximately 3.5 million persons, many of them refugees, who have immigrated to this country.

Those who enter the country as permanent residents enjoy all of the legal protection granted to full citizens and are required to pay taxes.

They cannot vote, but depending on immigration quotas, length of time spent in this country and other factors, they may be allowed to seek the status of naturalized citizen.

Sirhan's family traces its roots back to a small village called Silwan on the outskirts of Old Jerusalem, located in the West Bank sector seized by Israel from Jordan last June.

Arab sources say there are about 250 persons named Sirhan in the village, all members of branches of the same family.

Origin of "Assassins"

It was in that same part of the world, hundreds of years ago, that a secret order of Ismaili Moslems terrorized non-believers. They often were under the influence of hashish, and came to be known as "assassins" in a corruption of the word "hashish."

Over the past two decades, Middle East political assassinations have claimed the lives of numerous government leaders, monarchs and others, including the father of the current king of Jordan, who attempted to seek an accommodation with Israel.

Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty yesterday said that when police searched Sirhan following his arrest they found in one of his pockets an article by newspaper columnist David Lawrence on "Kennedy's dove position on Vietnam and his hawk position on the Middle East."

Yorty's press secretary, Tom Jordine, said the column attempted "to show Kennedy's inconsistencies in trying to win votes of all types of people." Also in Sirhan's possession, according to police, was a list of Kennedy's scheduled public appearances in California.

WASHINGTON-AFRO AMERICAN

In his televised debate with Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy last Saturday night, Kennedy said "we have a commitment to Israel" and specifically urged the Johnson administration to send 50 supersonic Phantom jet planes to Israel.

Kennedy, perhaps more than any of the other declared candidates seeking the nomination for the presidency, had been an outspoken supporter of Israeli independence, but virtually all of the candidates have been in general agreement on a pro-Israel position.

Acting with the permission of Sirhan's family, police yesterday searched the Pasadena home and found two 9-by-12-inch spiral-bound notebooks similar to those used by students.

The notebooks, which Yorty said apparently belonged to Sirhan, contained 18 to 20 pages of handwritten notes and some doodling. Most of the notes were in English, but some were in Arabic, the mayor said.

He said the notebooks contained "many statements about assassinating Sen. Robert F. Kennedy," other comments of a pro-Arab and anti-Israel nature and some references "saying the suspect is sympathetic to communism, whether it be Russian, Chinese and so forth."

Finally, said the mayor, there was a notation made in one of the notebooks on either May 17 or 18 which was "a direct reference to the necessity to assassinate Sen. Kennedy before June 5, 1968."

Those remarks by Yorty, made at a press conference, drew rebukes from both Reddin and A. L. Wirin, chief counsel of the Southern California chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union, both of whom implied that such disclosures might be prejudicial to Sirhan's legal rights.

Sirhan was 12 years old when his family entered this country. He attended Longfellow Elementary School and John Muir High School in Pasadena and attended Pasadena City College. Several of his high school classmates described him as a good and polite student.

But Frank Celis Jr., who was in the sixth grade with Sirhan, recalled yesterday that "kids picked on him, telling him dirty words. He'd repeat them without knowing what they meant."

Still another classmate, a girl who attended high school with Sirhan but asked not to be identified, recalled yesterday that he was shy and fastidious about always wearing a white shirt. "He wouldn't hurt a fly," she said.

He worked at Organic Pasadena, an organic health food store located about 1 1/2 blocks from the middle-income, tree-shaded street where the Sirhan family lives.

"He was a hard worker, honest and good-hearted but nevertheless a fanatic when it came to discussions about religion and politics," recalled Mrs. Bisle Boyko, a former co-worker at the store. "But

Quit After Argument

John H. Weidner Jr., owner of the store, said Sirhan worked for him about seven months but quit last April in an argument over money. "We called him Sol around the store; everyone did," said Weidner.

"He was a good worker, an honest man, but he had a lot of complexes, mainly relating to Israel," added Weidner. "I think he did it (shot Kennedy) because he thought he was doing something for his country, but not necessarily the United States," added Weidner.

The store owner recalled that Sirhan "told me that when he was a child, he saw members of his family killed by Jews, and he had to flee Jordan when he was a child."

"He was not a citizen and didn't like the United States. You had to be careful not to walk on his feet. He wanted you to respect him intellectually. He was a man who said, 'I'm going to have my rights.'"

Sirhan was licensed in 1966 by the California Racing Commission as a "hot walker" and "exercise boy" to cool off horses which had become heated by running at Hollywood Park. He did not renew that license in 1967 or 1968, but apparently retained a strong interest in horse racing.

"He wanted to be a jockey, and the people around the track advised him to get a job on a farm where he could exercise horses and learn to ride," said John Shear, a co-worker at Hollywood Park.

"When there was trouble between Jordan and Israel, he would become inflamed," Shear added. "Since I wasn't interested in politics, I wouldn't discuss it, but he was violently pro-Jordan and anti-Israeli."

Thrown From Horse

Sirhan suffered head and back injuries when he was thrown from a horse on Sept. 25, 1966. He filed a claim with the Argonaut Insurance Co., which had earlier issued a policy in his name.

He was awarded $2,000 on April 5 in settlement of a court suit stemming from that accident, but legal fees and other expenses reduced the size of the award to $1,705.

Recalling that incident, Sirhan's mother, Mrs. Mary Sirhan, yesterday pointed to her right temple and said her son "hurt his head right here."

Mrs. Sirhan, a housekeeper at Westminster Presbyterian Nursery School in Pasadena, cried in shock when she learned of her son's arrest. "My son — it can't be. No. Oh no."

Later she recalled that "ever since he had a fall about a year ago, he hasn't been the same. I can't talk to him."

Money in Possession

When Sirhan was taken into custody yesterday, he had in his possession four $100 bills and about $10 in small bills and change. Police believe the large bills may have been part of the award from the horse accident.

Also found in Sirhan's pocket was a key to a 1959 automobile parked near the Ambassador Hotel, where the assassination occurred.

Reddin said the car belonged to a hotel employe who worked in the kitchen where Kennedy was shot. The employe was quoted by police as saying he did not know Sirhan and did not know how Sirhan got the key.

Reddin discounted speculation that others were involved in the shooting. "We are now reasonably sure that there's only one suspect," he said yesterday.

Conspiracy Discounted

The police chief also said he did not read any "sinister international aspects into the case — we still do not feel we are in a conspiratorial situation."

He said a check of official files showed no memberships on Sirhan's part in any subversive organizations "that we know of."

Immigration and Naturalization Service records list Sirhan's four brothers living in his country as Adel, Munir, Saidallah and Sharief.

Reddin said Munir and Adel came to police voluntarily yesterday after seeing a picture of their brother on television following his arrest. They were cleared of any implication in the crime and released after questioning, police said.

Sirhan, Adel and Munir lived with their mother, Reddin said. Sharief lives in Highland Park, Calif., and Saidallah lives in New York, according to Reddin.

Marijuana Conviction

Munir was convicted on Oct. 12, 1966, in Superior Court of California on a state charge of possession of marijuana. He was sentenced to five years' probation.

As a result of that incident, the Immigration and Naturalization Service initiated deportation proceedings against him in January 1967, and last July a special inquiry officer ordered that Munir be deported.

However, Munir appealed the case to the Board of Immigration Appeals, which on May 27 remanded the case back to the special inquiry officer for further investigation because the California court had set aside Munir's guilty plea and ordered that jurisdiction be assumed by juvenile authorities.

Booked Previously

An investigator with the Los Angeles district attorney's office today said he was told by Pasadena police that Sirhan Sirhan had been taken into custody last December, but he declined to provide the season or charge.

Pasadena police said they had a "red flag" file on Sirhan, indicating he had been booked previously, but they said they could not confirm if he had been formally arrested.

Russell Stone, a Pasadena policeman, said the file was in the possession of detectives and was not immediately available for inspection. He said the file dated from March 1961, when Sirhan reported a bicycle stolen.

There also was a notation that Sirhan complained he was the victim of a disturbance in 1963, and other notations indicated that in 1962 and again in March Sirhan was arrested in a disturbance. In the March case, Stone said, Sirhan

Revolver's Ownership

The snub-nosed, .22-caliber Iver Johnson "Cadet" revolver police said was used to shoot Kennedy passed through the hands of at least four other persons from the time it was first purchased in August 1965 until it was wrested from Sirhan's hands.

Alvert L. Hertz, a 72-year-old Alhambra man seeking protection for his home, bought it during the Watts racial rioting. He gave it to his daughter, Mrs. Robert F. Westlake of Pasadena, who also used it for protection.

Mrs. Westlake decided she did not want the gun because of the possible danger it posed to her two young children and sold it to an 18-year-old neighbor, George Charles Erhard.

Erhard told police that he subsequently sold the pistol "to a bushy-haired guy named Joe," according to Reddin. "Joe" turned out to be the nickname for one of Sirhan's brothers, Munir, who told police he did not know how Sirhan got the weapon.

Bullet Shattered Kennedy's Brain

LOS ANGELES, June 7 (UPI) — The bullet wound in the brain of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy was so severe that even if he had lived there would have been "extensive damage," Coroner Thomas Noguchi said yesterday.

"Scattered fragments of the bullet and bone tissue damaged the main portion of the right side of the brain," said the Coroner. He refused to comment specifically on whether there might have been impairment of eyesight, speech and movement but said "the injury was so severe as to cause extensive damage."

Another bullet entered the back portion of the right arm pit and traveled upward. It lodged just beneath the flesh of Sen. Kennedy's neck. That bullet was removed and turned over to the police. It tore thru layers of muscle tissue but did not penetrate any vital organs.

Dr. Noguchi said all the vital organs were removed from Sen. Kennedy's body, including the entire brain, and retained here for further pathological examination.

The complete autopsy report will not be completed for a few weeks, said Dr. Noguchi. "It must be thoro. Let me emphasize that we have the very best of facilities," he said.

Dr. Noguchi, two pathologists on his staff and three medical consultants from the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology in Washington, D. C., completed the autopsy in 6 hours and 15 minutes.

Kennedy Lies in State; Funeral Tomorrow With Burial Here

Rich and Poor Say a Final Farewell

NEW YORK, June 7 (UPI) — Thousands of mourners filled St. Patrick's Cathedral at sunrise today in a last farewell to Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. They wept, crossed themselves and some kissed his coffin in bereavement.

The princely rich whose background he shared and the struggling poor whose cause he championed came in sadness to the mighty Gothic cathedral on Fifth Avenue to pass by the closed coffin. His adopted city and the nation were saying goodbye to the assassinated Senator they knew as Bobby.

The grieving multitudes came in work clothes and finery. They passed in two single files at the rate of 40 per minute.

POPE PAUL SAYS MASS

In Vatican City, Pope Paul VI offered mass for the repose of the soul of the 42-year-old Senator. The Pontiff celebrated the mass in his private chapel, with only his two secretaries looking on.

But it was in St. Patrick's that the sorrow of the nation was most dramatically demonstrated.

The mass for the dead began at 6 a.m., at an altar some distance from the casket. As the mourners passed by the bier, the voice of a priest could be heard.

"Let us pray that God will bless Bobby Kennedy, that God will bless this nation. . ."

"Let us pray that God will give the Kennedy family courage to endure this trying time. . ."

It was one of eight masses today for the Senator.

Mary Ann Camp, 30, of Oldbridge, N. J., stood silently all night, looking at the twin spires of the massive cathedral. She brought three children with her, Linda, 10; Billy, 7, and Jimmy, 5. The youngest two were lying in the warm night air on a blanket spread on the sidewalk.

"I just felt it was something I had to do," she said. "I wanted my children to see. I am trying to teach them to live by the rules.

"I wanted them to see what happened when people don't."

TEDDY KEEPS VIGIL

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, whose three older brothers died violently serving their country, remained in the chancery of the cathedral through much of the long night, kneeling beside the casket bearing his brother. It was grimly reminiscent of another seemingly endless night, nearly five years ago, when the body of President Kennedy was borne by presidential jet to Washington after that bleak day in Dallas.

Now Robert Kennedy had made his last, long airplane trip. The body was borne from Los Angeles to New York Thursday.

The plane jet touched down at Marine Terminal, Laguardia Airport. Thousands waited there — a few were friends of the family, others were among a multitude to whom Sen. Kennedy was, simply, a hero.

The 10-mile trip to Midtown Manhattan was made swiftly by motorcade. Along Astoria Boulevard in Queens, at the approach to the Triborough Bridge into Manhattan, thousands stood, watching the black cars speed by. More of the curious and the sorrowful watched the cortege weave thru Manhattan's cramped streets.

The body was borne to St. Patrick's for a private service for the family and close friends.

The coffin was taken from the hearse, in which Sen. Kennedy's widow Ethel had ridden from the airport, and carried into the church. Pall bearers included his brother and two of the late Senator's sons.

Edward Kennedy walked out after the seven minute ceremony with the rest of the family, then went back inside to continue his vigil. He left more than three hours later for a brief rest, but returned before dawn.

BURIAL HERE TOMORROW

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. tomorrow. The body then will be borne by train to Washington for burial in Arlington National Cemetery.

At approximately 5:30 p.m., Sen. Kennedy will be buried beside his brother, the slain President, and John F. Kennedy's two infant children.

Returning with the body on the train will be members of the family, with close friends and aides of the Senator. There will also be a special car on the train carrying a large delegation of Senators who were to fly to New York earlier in the day to attend the mass for their dead colleague.

These mourners will form the nucleus of a motorecade procession that will form when the train arrives here at 4:40 p.m. It is expected to move down Delaware av from the station to Constitution av and across Memorial Bridge to Arlington Cemetery.

The procession will pass the New Senate Office Building and the Justice Department where the Senator held offices.
